LWVME & LWVME ED. FUND WEB SITE POLICY (Re-adopted by LWVME Board & LWVME Ed. Fund Trustees 2/23/2011)

LWVME maintains a web site, consistent with the League's mission as a nonpartisan political organization, to encourage the public's informed and active participation in government, to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and to influence public policy through education and advocacy. In addition, the League's web site serves to inform and educate League members and members of the public about the League and its activities.

- Content is nonpartisan and balanced.
- Access is free of charge.
- No information is collected about visitors to the site unless they supply it knowingly and voluntarily in response to a sign-up page.
- Individual LWVME board and Ed. Fund trustee mailing addresses, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers will not be included unless specifically authorized by the board member or trustee.
- Links to the web sites of other organizations meet at least one of the following criteria:
  - In general agreement with LWVME positions and strategies
  - Major coalition partners
  - Other organizations that provide balanced background information
  - Do not block or hamper a user's ability to return to the LWVME site
  - Part of our voter education service
- There is a members-only section that includes League board & Ed. Fund trustees' minutes. All other information is available to members of the public.
